Final Team selection will take place at the team training camps scheduled from August 28th-September 3rd 2010.

Players that are selected to the 2010/2011 team based on the April tryout sessions are required to participate in the Spring Development camp and a minimum of two summer camps to maintain their roster spot.

Players that do not sign up for the Spring/Summer requirements or are not yet selected to the team will not have a roster spot secured and will be given an opportunity at the final two August sessions to compete for a roster spot at the Team Training camp. In addition, players released from the A1 team, will be assessed for a spot on their respective A2 teams, providing there is one in category.

For the Novice D program, the April tryout session is primarily an intro to tryouts with the team selection taking place at the team training camp during training camp week.

Further information will be released shortly with the updated program. For further details please contact either the Rep Program Governor, Andrew Holenchuk or the Director of Hockey Operations, Rob Richardson.
